

Veterinary Receptionist

Do you love animals and have a talent for providing AMAZING customer service? Do you have a solid work history and excellent references from previous supervisors?

A thriving veterinary private practice in Covington, GA has an incredible opportunity for the right go-getter as a Veterinary Receptionist. They are growing and ready to add to their team of super heroes.

What we're looking for:

-  High priority will be given to applicants with previous veterinary front desk experience...especially on Infinity software
-  Prior reception, front desk or customer service experience with a steady work history
-  A warm and energetic personality
-  "Never give up" attitude - Our recruitment process has MANY steps!
-  Ability to multi-task and not get rattled when twenty things are happening at once!

What we offer:

- An energetic team with a positive culture. Imagine looking forward to coming to work each day!
- Paid time off, some paid holidays, continuing education, uniform allowance, pet care discounts (all after introductory period) and retirement plan after 2 years.
- NO WEEKENDS!

There is no medical or dental insurance offered at this time.